Speaking English for the real world

Everyday Communication

1. Introduction

- Start to think about the topic. What kind of questions do people answer when they are introducing themselves?
- Improve your listening skills. Listen to my talk and answer the question.
- Learn some " filler language" that was used in the talk. Filler language gives you time to think about what to say, and it makes you sound like a native speaker(eg. well, so, basically etc).
- Learn some useful questions to ask other people, and practise saying them with natural English accent.

2. Describe people, places and things

3. Opinions, likes and dislikes

4. Expressing doubts, Sharing Experiences

5. Visiting a doctor or restaurant

6. Making requests and offers

7. At the movie Theatre, Meeting Relatives

8. Conversational responses (how to respond appropriately to people's feelings, questions, successes and problems with natural English)

9. Random topics (talking about your life story, hobbies and interests, ambitions, daily routine, neighbourhood, clothes etc.)

Extra Lessons

Ways to Say

:- Thank you, I'm Busy, It's Important, How're you?, It's Great, This Shows, I'm Tired, I'm Fine, You're Welcome, I'll Support You, It's Boring, Lazy, I'm Drunk!, Kind, Beautiful, Never, I Think, Stupid,

What's going on? + What's up?

- I know, right?!
- Idioms with Body Parts
- Up for it + Down for it
- I don't buy it Vs I'm not buying it
- Wanna/ Gonna/ Gotta
